As a member of the LWVSNM you will be involved with other women and men who are also committed to making a difference! Members are encouraged to be active, attend meetings and/or participate in a myriad of activities and committees.

League activities:
- Monthly meetings with guest speakers
- Voter registration events
- Non-partisan election forums
- Government meeting attendance and participation
- Meeting others in the community who are also interested in fair elections, increasing voter participation, discussing important community issues, and advocating for issues that make our communities even better!

Issues that are studied and are the focus of League engagement:
- Voter Participation and Reform
- Education, Housing and Redistricting
- Immigration and the Border
- Public Policies and Legislation
- Finance and Tax Reform

Our Voice is Heard:
- Testimonies and events at the state’s capitol and meetings with legislators
- Publication of the highly popular Voters Guide for municipal and general elections
- Distribution of Who’s Who Directory of Elected Officials (www.lwvsnm.org/whos-who/
- Online Resources: www.lwvsnm.org
- Attendance at local government meetings
